

SANTA FE BLUES

A Railroad Photographer's Album

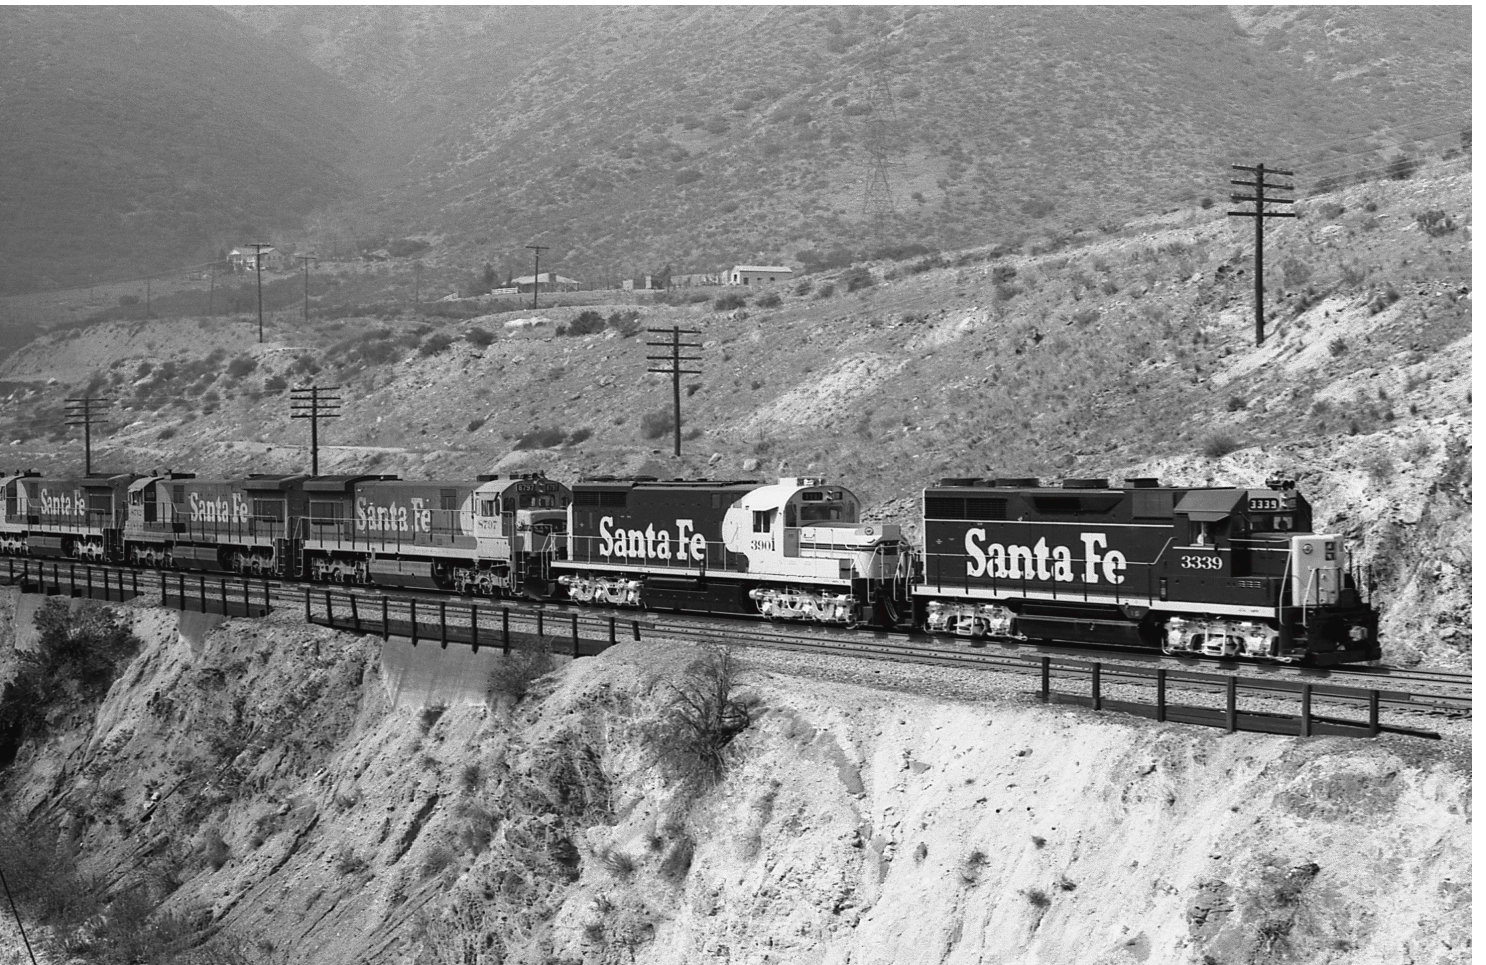

Volume I

Lowell Amrine

Former RSD15 number 9826, now CRSD20 3901 dead-in-tow on Cajon eastbound at Blue Cut, 1977.

An eastbound cab hop sits in the siding at Upland on the Second District as a local runs around them on the main.

The local gone, the cap hop departs for San Bernardino, 1979.

A rebuilt SD40 eastbound between Pisgah and Ludlow on the Needles Subdivision, 1983.

A new SD40-2 leads three veteran F45s westbound over the Southern Pacific's Yuma Subdivision at Colton Tower, 1977.

Three EMDs lead a lone GE eastbound over the Crookton Cutoff at West Eagle Nest, Arizona, 1984.

An eastbound at Scholle, New Mexico with a B40-8 and three EMDs enter the double track to Mountainair, 1988.

An eastbound climbs out of the eastern end of Abo Canyon, 1988.

Two versions of the SD45 drop westbound toward the Colorado River at Yucca, Arizona, 1983.

A morning eastbound ascends Cajon Pass at Devore with an SD45B between the F45 and GP40X, 1987.

A second F45 teamed with an SD40-2 serve as helpers.

